

IMO Model Course 3.17 Core Section 1 Part C: Elementary English

| MarEng PlusChapterRadio Medical | Knowledge, Understanding, Proficiency                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Time (hours)CD      Self study- Practice |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| First Aidvocabulary                 | Grammar: Names and states the purpose of items used in basic first aid treatment17.2 Vocabulary: Knows a First Aid box and contentsMaritime focus: Can use the relevant first aid vocabulary when in contact with radio medical                                                                                        |                                                      |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 0,1                                                  |
| Body Parts                              | Grammar: How the genitive or prepositions are used in body parts17.2 Vocabulary: knows the parts of the bodyMaritime focus: Can use the relevant vocabulary when in contact with Radio Medical.                                                                                                                        |                                                      |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 0,5                                                  |
| Crossword                               | Grammar: descriptions and functions of the Body Parts17 Vocabulary: knows the particular parts of the bodyCommunication skills: Listening and writingMaritime focus: Can use the relevant first aid vocabulary in contact with radio medical                                                                       |                                                      |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 0,2                                                  |
| Find thesynonymes                   | Vocabulary: Identifies synonymsGrammar. Understanding connections between different text parts and how they form a coherent text.Communication Skills: Developing better communication skills achieved by larger vocabularyMaritime focus: General information about Radio medical which is useful when taking a contact. |                                                      |
|                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 0,5                                                  |

|                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |     |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Presentation            | 17.3 Vocabulary: Knows the essential vocabulary used in Medical textbooks for seafarers.Grammar: Identifies the causes, prevention and treatment of common injuries on board from written reports or textsCommunication Skills: Listening, speaking, reading, writingMaritime focus: Can find the relevant information in textbooks having to do with common health problems at sea |     |
|                         | 1,5                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |     |
| Interview with a doctor | Vocabulary: Learning of how to use a relevant vocabulary for radio medical in a context.Grammar: Learning how to use an interview technique for finding relevant information.Communications Skills: Listening and reading.Maritime focus: general information and facts about Radio Medical for seafarers.                                                                          |     |
|                         | 0,5                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |     |
| Unit Total Hours        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 3,3 |